

3. Why Use JWT (JSON Web Token)?

JWT is a lightweight, self-contained token commonly used for secure information exchange. It provides a stateless authentication mechanism.

Key Advantages:

- Scalability: Servers do not need to store session state.
- Portability: The token can be passed between systems.
- Secure Data Sharing: Contains encrypted claims for validation.